

Getting to know a scholar: Chase Costner September 16 - September 22

Background: Chase Costner is from Lincolnton, North Carolina where he attended West Lincoln High School. He is majoring in Computer Science and his favorite subject is History. His hobbies include filmmaking, photography, skiing, and hiking. He decided to major in Computer Science because “I’ve always been interested tech/computing and was curious to learn about how it actually works.” As far as choosing ASU, “I love the mountains, the campus was a good fit for me.”
