

Getting to Know a Scholar: 10/19-10/25/15

Background: Lauren Murray is from Brevard, NC where she attended Brevard High School and graduated in 2014. She is majoring in Mathematics with a concentration in Statistics, her favorite subject is Math. She enjoys volleyball, cooking, crafting, skiing, hiking, and camping. She chose mathematics as a major because she had great high school teachers who got her interested in math. She chose ASU because of the locations within the mountains and it is a perfect distance away from home.
