

Getting to Know a Scholar: 2/15-2/21/16

Russell Chamberlain is from Burnsville, NC and graduated from Scattergood Friend's School in 2006. He is a math and physics major. In Russell's free time he enjoys playing soccer, as well as, science fiction works by Asimov, Heinlein, and Bradbury. He also enjoys european-style board games, juggling, and anti-capitalist philosophy. Russell sites the work of Carl Sagan and Robert Heinlein as influence for his academic interests. He chose ASU because he wanted to be part of a more focused learning community.
